Reference: Year End Report (7/1/97-12/31/97)

Dear Mr. Dubay:

On April 28, 1998, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 18, 1998 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

-When establishing "best efforts" a committee must explain the procedures it uses to acquire the occupation and employer from all contributors. For these procedures to be adequate, a committee must also state if such information is requested in all initial solicitations. You may provide samples of initial solicitations when responding to this request.

With your amendment, you submitted a table listing the ten individuals whom you are contacting and asked the Commission verify that these are the only contributors with missing information. A review of the Year End Report indicates that you also need to provide the occupation for five more individuals (for example, Jarlath Hume and William J Donnelly).

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.
